Speech Language Pathology Assistant

Employment Type: Full and/or Part-Time

Start Date: Open Until Filled

About the Organization

The Children's Specialty Clinic of the San Luis Valley (CSCSLV) is a nonprofit, led by a pediatrician and supported by volunteer board members including parents, specialists, and community advocates, with a mission to create a unique, multidisciplinary clinic that brings specialty care to children with complex medical and behavioral needs in the San Luis Valley. We are proud to be an employer who genuinely cares about the well-being of our team and is deeply rooted in a passion for serving children, believing that flexibility, respect, and understanding empower our employees to do their best work for the families we serve.

About the Position

The Speech Language Pathology Assistant (SLPA) supports children and families in the San Luis Valley by implementing individualized therapy plans under the guidance of a supervising SLP. The SLPA works as part of a collaborative therapy team to promote communication, developmental, and functional skills, while engaging families in care. The ideal candidate is skilled, compassionate, and committed to providing culturally responsive, family-centered services.

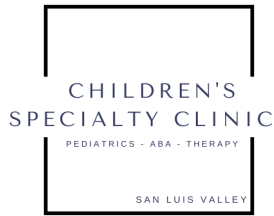

What You'll DO

- Implement individualized speech and language therapy plans under SLP supervision.
- Provide direct therapy to support speech, language, social communication, and early communication skills.
- Prepare and adapt therapy materials to meet each child's needs and developmental level.
- Monitor progress, collect data, and report observations to the supervising SLP
- .Participate in team meetings, case reviews, and treatment planning discussions.
- Support families by modeling strategies and reinforcing home practice.
- Maintain accurate documentation and adhere to state, federal, and ethical standards.
- Participate in continuing education and support a family-centered clinic environment.
